

The European Lecture Series

Public conference

– Great War 1914-1918 Centenary –

“Belgian Neutrality and the British Decision for War”

Mr Terry Boardman / author and lecturer

<http://threeman.org/>

- Britain's Foreign Policy Imperatives in 1887-1914
- The Making of the Foreign Policy Concepts of Sir Edward Grey 1892-1914
- Sir Edward Grey as Foreign Secretary 1906-1914: 'honest broker' or warmonger?
- The 'Neutrality of Belgium' as a Factor in British Planning 1900-1914
- Belgian Neutrality and Britain's Decision for War in July-August 1914
- Beyond the Centenary: The Similarities between 1914 and today

Time: Monday 28 April 2014, 18h00-20h00

Venu: The Brussels-Europe Liaison Office
63 Av. d'Auderghem - Oudergemlaan 63
B-1040 Brussel/Bruxelles (close to metro Schuman)

With simultaneous translations: English/Dutch/French

To join the lecture please register asap: info@project2014.be

Entrance fee €20,00

“Beyond the 1914 -1918 Centenary”

Phone: 0032/475-63.33.52

<http://sozial.goetheanum.org/4851.0.html?&L=1>